HOW TO BECOME A MEMBER OR ALLIANCE PARTNER

Become a Member or Alliance Partner of the Apprentice Employment Network NSW & ACT

We invite you to join our esteemed network by following these steps:

Eligibility

- Your organisation must be a Registered Group Training Organisation in NSW or ACT with active registration.
- Not-for-Profit Registered Group Training Organisations can only become Members.
- The current AEN NSW ACT Constitution, For-Profit Registered Group Training Organisations can only become Alliance Partners.
- Membership or Alliance Partnership is linked to an organisation, not an individual.

Process

1. Submit a completed online application form, including acknowledgment of the AEN Code of Conduct and Declaration. Please get in touch with AEN for a link to the application form should you not be able to access it from this document.
2. The Apprentice Employment Network Executive Team will carefully vet and review all applications. The review process may take up to 30 days, and applications will be acknowledged upon receipt.
3. Please note that a completed application does not guarantee automatic membership or partnership.
4. Once your application is approved, your organisation will receive an invoice, calculated pro rata based on the financial year.
5. Membership or Alliance Partnership is recognised once the initial invoice is paid in full.
